

Letter from the BCP General Manager - Patty Grube

September 30, 2021 marked the end of our fiscal year and the auditors are completing their work. BCP began the year with an enrollment of 11,724,236 bushels. At the end of the first and second trimesters, some BCP members took advantage of the opportunity to remove their bushels from BCP and delivered those bushels on their own. As a result 14,121 bushels left the pool during the year, ending the year with BCP enrollment of 11,710,115 bushels. During the year, BCP renewed its agreement to purchase corn from CVEC through the corn procurement agreement, extending it through September 30, 2023. As part of this agreement, CVEC charges BCP a $0.13 per bushel handling fee for the procurement and delivery of corn, which is included in our corn cost.

In FY2021, BCP paid an average of $5.37 per bushel (which includes the $0.13), while our sale of corn to CVAC averaged $5.28/bushel. This resulted in a $.09 loss before board, interest, tax, and administrative costs, bringing the preliminary loss to $.10/bushel. It should be noted that BCP's intention is to operate as close to break-even as possible, while staying out of the red. Currently the company has negative equity and the calling of an additional $0.005 per bushel would bring us into the black. This would result in a potential funding loss margin call of $.105 per bushel. However, that decision will be made at the board meeting to be held on Friday, November 12 when the audit is presented and reviewed. The year-end income statement and balance sheet are included for your review. As shown, BCP currently has a loss of ($1,151,784) before a funding loss margin call is determined and recorded on the books. A letter will be mailed in the last half of November 2021 to each BCP member stating the total amount that is due, with payment to be sent by December 27, 2021.

Looking ahead to FY2022, the Board of Directors has renewed the contract with CVEC to provide grain purchasing services on behalf of BCP members, keeping the fee at $0.13/bushel through FY2023. This should result in an approximate loss for FY2022 of $.14 per bushel, plus or minus corn price variability.

BCP's annual meeting has been set for Tuesday, January 25, 2022 at McKinney's in Benson, MN, subject to COVID-19 regulations. It will follow the CVAC meeting, which begins at 1 pm. BCP has 1 board seat up for re-election this year, David Strand. If you are interested in serving on the BCP board, please see the nomination procedures included in this newsletter or contact the office with any questions. You can expect to receive the annual meeting packet in early January 2022 and I look forward to seeing you at the annual meeting.

Commodity Update Brody Padgett

This year's growing season was certainly not ideal, but fortunately for CVEC I think area yields have outpaced expectations and corn quality looks to be excellent. This year's crop coming in better than expectations does not mean it was better than average however. Several producers in our draw suffered the impacts of the hot and dry summer, missing timely rains. The below average local supply and above average export demand will mean higher corn costs for the plant, but certainly not as bad as it could have been. We will see strong competition for corn from area elevators as export markets to the West Coast and Canada move corn out by rail. Fortunately for CVEC, tightness in U.S. ethanol stocks and competitive export economics have created an environment for positive ethanol margins in the near term that will offset the higher costs.

A reminder that bushels may now leave the BCP at the end of any trimester throughout the year and be placed in the delivery position. Please feel free to contact myself or Sara if you would like to walk through what this may look like given your specific situation (320-843-1231).

Letter from the Chairman - Roger Longhenry

Hello Corn Pool Members,

There have been some big changes again this year, last year we ran the plant at ½ rate for part of the year producing a lot of industrial grade and very little ethanol. This year we ran at full rate producing mostly ethanol. Brody did a great job buying corn and keeping the bins full. This lowered the corn pools price that we paid for our corn. We have our audit complete but the board has not looked at the numbers yet, it does appear we could be between 10 - 11 cents. The board will be meeting on November 12th.

The Annual Meeting will be held in January. If anyone is interested in running for the board, please contact the CVAC office. They will get your name placed on the ballot.

Wishing you all a very Happy and Thankful Holiday Season! Stay healthy, stay safe.
